Yvonne is an experienced, results-driven organizational consultant with national exposure and proven expertise in consulting. Her focus on business results and leadership success across industries and cultures ranges from small to Fortune companies. Time and again, she has demonstrated interpersonal awareness for bringing divergent thinking and opposing goals into well rounded plans for growth. She has a proven ability as a strategic partner to drive ambiguous projects forward and create a network of support. Yvonne relies on her progressive and diverse experience and drive for realistic solutions as the method for change at all levels within an organization. She believes that regardless if you are the business owner or corporate leader, your success depends on your willingness to invest in yourself and your employees.

Within her business of Consulting Solutions, Yvonne is a national speaker, consultant and coach for success driven businesses and professionals.
